

How to write a LONG ONLINE POSTING – KEY

Check your answers. If you are not sure about an answer, ask your teacher.

1 Think about online postings you see on social media, apps or websites.

a. Tick (✓) the statements that are TRUE for most online postings.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|--|
| ☒ | People often write about personal experiences or give opinions. |
| ☐ | Most postings use very formal language (for example: "Dear Sir/Madam"). |
| ☒ | Postings usually have a clear topic, for example, tips or recommendations. |
| ☒ | People sometimes use emojis 😊 to show their feelings. |
| ☐ | Postings usually give a lot of background information. |

b. What else do you do when you post something online? Write your ideas in the thought bubbles.

These are some ideas:

Read this writing task carefully. What should you write about in your online posting? Tick (✓) the correct answer.

I should ...

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|
| ☐ | talk about what makes a good friend, give tips on friendship, and explain how to be a better friend at school. |
| ☒ | share a personal story about my best friend, how we met, what my friend is like, and why friendship is important to me. |
| ☐ | describe my best friend's personality, write about fun things we do, and say why we spend time together. |

"School without my best friend? – Impossible!"
 That's what many teenagers say. What about friendship in your life?
 Share your story with us here!

In your posting on (School) Life Happens, you should:

- tell the story of how you met your best friend
- describe what you like/don't like about him/her
- explain why a friend is important for you

Write around 120–140 words.

3 Read Noa's posting.

Each part of a posting has a job.

- a. Write the numbers from the posting (1–6) into the boxes before each idea.

1	Hello everyone!
2	Do you also have a friend who makes your life better? For me, this is Mia.
3	I'll always remember the moment we met. It was our first day of school and we were both lost. We then asked each other the way to our classroom and we've been best friends since then .
4	There are so many things I like about her . For example, she always helps me. We often do our math homework together because that's easier. She sometimes talks a bit too much, but nobody's perfect, right?
5	Best friends are so important! Everyone needs someone they can tell everything and know that all secrets are safe. Also, it's great to have someone you can have fun with and laugh about silly jokes.
6	I think everyone needs a bestie at school. Don't you agree?

Read the parts below from Noa's posting.
These parts are about the three bullet points.

The first sentence of a bullet point is a topic sentence. It tells what the next part is about.

a. Underline the first sentence in each part.

About bullet point 1	I'll always remember the moment we met. It was our first day of school and we were both lost. We then asked each other to our classroom and we've been best friends since then.
About bullet point 2	There are so many things I like about her. For example, she always helps me. We sometimes do our math homework together because that's easier. She sometimes talks a bit too much, but nobody's perfect, right?
About bullet point 3	Best friends are so important! Everyone needs someone they can tell everything and know that all secrets are safe. Also, it's great to have someone you can have fun with and laugh about silly jokes.

b. Write what these topic sentences are about. Choose from these phrases. There are two phrases that you don't need.

what Noa doesn't like about Mia how important best friends are the time Noa and Mia met a typical school day

what Noa likes about Mia

The topic sentence for bullet point 1 is about the time when Noa and Mia met.

The topic sentence for bullet point 2 is about what Noa likes about Mia.

The topic sentence for bullet point 3 is about why best friends are important.

c. Noa gives some details for each bullet point. Each detail already has one extra sentence that fits (✓). Look at the other sentences. Write ✓ if the sentence fits the detail. Write x if it doesn't.

For each bullet point give extra information.

Detail for bullet point 1:
It was our first day of school and we were both lost.

We then asked each other the way to our classroom and we've been best friends since then.

The school building was very old and had a long history.

We didn't know where our classroom was and felt a bit nervous.

Detail for bullet point 2:
She always offers to help.

- ☒ We sometimes do our math homework together because that's easier.
- ☒ She lives near the school and takes the bus every morning.
- ☒ That makes school less stressful for me.

Detail for bullet point 2:
She sometimes talks a bit too much.

- ☒ ... but nobody's perfect, right?
- ☒ This can be annoying when I want to listen in class.
- ☒ She has two sisters and a dog at home.

Detail for bullet point 3:
Everyone needs someone they can tell everything...

- ☒ ... and know that all secrets are safe.
- ☒ ... and they often meet after school.
- ☒ ... because good friends never laugh at you.

Detail for bullet point 3:
Also it's great to have someone you can have fun with...

- ☒ ... and laugh about silly jokes.
- ☒ ... when you feel bored or sad.
- ☒ ... like playing games or watching funny videos together.

5 Read Tim's posting. It's all mixed up.

- Put the parts of his posting in the correct order. Fill in the numbers 1–5.
- Write the correct label for each part. Use these labels:

About bullet point 3	Greeting & opening	About bullet point 1	About bullet point 2	Closing
----------------------	--------------------	----------------------	----------------------	---------

Number	Label	Tim's posting
3	About bullet point 2	There are many things I really like about Leo. He's very honest and always tells me the truth. We also like the same things, like playing football and listening to music. Sometimes he's a bit lazy, for example with homework, but that's not a big problem.
5	Closing	I think everyone should have a best friend at school. It makes life easier and a lot more fun. What about you? Who is your best friend?
4	About bullet point 3	Friends are very important to me, even at school. When I have a bad day, I know I can talk to someone who understands me. It's also more fun to share good moments with a friend than to be alone. For me, school would be much harder without my best friend.
1	Greeting & opening	Hi everyone! Have you ever met someone and you just knew you could be good friends? That's how it was for me and my best friend Leo.
2	About bullet point 1	We met two years ago in a sports club after school. I was new there and didn't know anyone. Leo started talking to me, and we trained together that day. After that, we met more often and soon became best friends.

6 Talking to the reader.

- Underline all the phrases or sentences in Tim's posting where he talks directly to YOU and other readers.

Talk to your readers directly.

b. Here are some more phrases you can use to talk to your readers. Add your own ideas.

Can you imagine that?

What do you think?

(as) you know ...

I'd love to hear your ideas.

We all have this problem sometimes.

Have you ever ...?

You know what?

Think back to what you have learned about writing online postings. What are three important things you want to do when you write your own long online posting?

These are just some ideas:

My top three:

- 1 I'll ask my readers one or two questions, so they feel like I'm talking to them.
- 2 I'll give some extra information for each bullet point.
- 3 I'll make sure to write one paragraph for each bullet point. I'll start with a topic sentence.
